Directions: Analyze the following quotes from President Abraham Lincoln. In detail, explain the main points of each quote.

1. "A house divided against itself can not stand. I believe this government can not endure permanently half-slave and half-free. I do not expect the Union to be dissolved-I do not expect the house to fall- but I do believe it will cease to be divided. It will become all one thing, or all the other."

2. "In view of the Constitution and the law, the Union is unbroken;...I will take care...that the laws of the Union be faithfully executed in all the states."

3. "We are not enemies, but friends. We must not be enemies. Though passion may have strained, it must not break our bonds of affection."
