

Problem/Issue	Reformer	Reformer's Solution
Religious faith
Abuse of alcohol
Worker's rights and working conditions
Education
Treatment of the mentally ill
Deaf and blind disabilities
Prison system
Focus Question:
Even though most of the reform movements did not produce a lot of change at the time, why were they incredibly important for the future?		