

Process: Invitation to the Constitutional Convention

Create an invitation to the Constitutional Convention of 1787. In your invitation, include the following:

1. extend an invitation to all delegates of the 13 states
2. state the purpose of the convention
3. state how long it will last (ex. "from the start date (May 14, 1787) until the completion of our business")
4. state the place the convention is to be held (building, city, state)
5. state some "famous attendees"—George Washington, Ben Franklin, etc.
6. give a proper salutation that restates the purpose and hopes for the future
7. make it neat and colorful
